By choosing to leave the default postal option of UK Royal Mail post on your order, rather than the option Courier Post (which is tracked and insured) you agree to accept that 4Ground Ltd and therefore www.4ground.co.uk are not responsible for the order once it has been handed over to Royal Mail – note a certificate of posting is produced to assure you that the order was handed over to Royal Mail.

3*/ Please note even though choosing or being upgraded to a courier option this does not mean we will ship the product next day. This upgrade is to give you a tracked and ensured option. With all our kits as we are the manufacturer there can be up to a 15working day period for orders to be fulfilled.

4Ground Ltd reserve the right to change the postage rates as and when it see fits without notice.
